

53 Koorong St
The Gap QLD 4061
30th March 2007

Dear George,

I recently re-discovered some more bits and pieces relating to Dad, which I had carefully stored in an old cupboard, many years ago, and promptly forgotten.

I do not know where most of the photos were taken, but you can decide if you think they are worth keeping. Both the books and magazines made interesting reading and of course his licences and log-book are also worth reading.

Kindest regards,